

eSafety for Parents and Carers

Websites you may find useful www.childnet-int.org - A non-profit making organisation working directly with children, parents and teachers to ensure the issues of online child protection and children's safe and positive use of the internet are addressed. They produce the KnowItAll CD - please take a FREE copy.

www.kidsmart.org.uk - Kidsmart is an award winning practical internet safety programme website for school, young, people, parents and agencies, produced by the internet charity Childnet International www.thinkuknow.com - GREAT FOR THE CHILDREN!

The Child Exploitation and Online Protection (CEOP) Centre has set up its own young person's website which has been designed and written specifically to make sure children stay safe on the internet.

www.internetwatch.org.uk report any websites that raise concern.

www.internetsafetyzone.co.uk - A government sponsored website developed to inform parents and children about how to be safe on the internet.

www.chatdanger.com - This website is about the potential dangers with interactive services online like chat, IM, online games, email and mobiles. It provides information, advice, true stories and games. The resource page also contained a number of links to other useful websites.

<http://clickcleverclicksafe.direct.gov.uk/index.html> - The government devised this website to teach children the "Click Clever Click Safe Code". It's been designed to act as an everyday reminder of simple good behaviours, to help you and your children avoid common risks online.

www.getnetwise.org - information for parents and children about using the internet and other technologies safely.

www.getsafeonline.org - A government sponsored web site developed one-stop-shop for reliable, up-to-date information about online safety, to give home users and small businesses the advice they need to use the internet safely